youth after school programs

To inquire about including Young Audiences of Houston after-school programs at your campus, please call (713) 520-9264 or email scheduling@yahouston.org to arrange a planning meeting with our program staff members at your convenience. We will travel to your campus, assess your needs, provide you with detailed information regarding available and qualified arts professionals from Young Audiences, and provide a detailed proposal and budget prior to the program start. All Young Audiences of Houston are certified through our evaluation process and are fingerprinted prior to beginning work with our organization.

*Lesson plans, attendance tracking and TEKS-guides can be supplied if requested.
